Fluorescence Markers for Advanced Microscopy: from Photophysics to Biology

18-23 March 2018, Les Houches, France

This biophysics school aims at training students and young researchers to master the fluorescent labels used in advanced fluorescence microscopy: their diversity, their mechanisms, their practical use and the developments in the field.

Registration at <https://fluorescenceleshouches.wordpress.com/registration/>

Deadline: December 15th, 2017
